Numb. 12125.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday October 7, to Tuesday October 10, 1780.

AT the Court at St. James's the 27th Day of September, 1780.

PRESENT,

The KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majeſty was graciouſly pleaſed, by His Royal Proclamation, bearing Date the 25th Day of October, 1776, to promiſe and declare, That the Bounties of Five Pounds for every Able Seaman, and of Two Pounds Ten Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, fit for His Majeſty's Service, ſhould be paid in the Manner thereby directed, to every ſuch Able and Ordinary Seaman, not above the Age of Fifty, nor under the Age of Eighteen Years, who ſhould, on or before the 31ſt of December then following, enter themſelves to ſerve in His Majeſty's Royal Navy, either with the Captains or Lieutenants of His Majeſty's Ships, or the Chief Officers on Board ſuch Tenders as ſhould be employed for raiſing Men for the Service of the Royal Navy: And whereas His Majeſty was alſo pleaſed, by His Royal Proclamation, bearing Date the 8th Day of November, 1776, to promiſe and declare, That a Reward of Two Pounds for every Able, and Thirty Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, ſhould be paid in the Manner thereby directed, to any Perſon who ſhould diſcover any Seaman or Seamen who might ſecrete themſelves, that ſo ſuch Seaman or Seamen ſhould be taken for His Majeſty's ſaid Service, by any of His Majeſty's Sea-Officers employed for raiſing Men, on or before the 31ſt Day of December, 1776: And whereas His Majeſty was likewiſe pleaſed, by His Royal Proclamation, bearing Date the 15th Day of Auguſt, 1777, to promiſe and declare, That every Able-bodied Landman, not above the Age of Thirty five, nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who ſhould voluntarily enter himſelf to ſerve on Board any of His Majeſty's Ships, on or before the 31ſt Day of October then next, ſhould receive, as of His Majeſty's Royal Bounty, the Sum of Thirty Shillings each Man, to be paid in Manner thereby directed: And whereas the Time limited by the ſaid Proclamations, for Payment of the ſaid Bounties and Rewards, hath been prolonged and extended to the 30th Day of this inſtant September; and it being judged expedient for His Majeſty's Service that the ſaid Bounties and Rewards ſhould be continued to be paid for ſome Time longer, His Majeſty, with the Advice of His Privy-Council, doth therefore order, and it is hereby accordingly ordered, that the Time limited for Payment of the ſaid Bounties and Rewards be prolonged and extended from the ſaid 30th Day of this inſtant September to the 31ſt Day of December next, incluſive.——Whereof all Perſons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themſelves accordingly.

W. Fawkener.

A MISTAKE was made, in printing the Gazette of laſt Evening, in mentioning Captain Richard Cotton, of the 33d Regiment, as having been killed, in the Action of the 16th of Auguſt, in South Carolina: That Gentleman was not killed, as there mentioned, but wounded; and, when Captain Roſs came away, was in a fair Way to recover.

OFFICE OF HIS MAJESTY's WORKS,
OCTOBER 6, 1780.

IN Consequence of an Address from the House of Commons to His Majesty, dated the 6th of July last, praying that He would be graciously pleased to order an Account to be taken of the Losses and Damages which any of His Subjects had sustained by Reason of the late rebellious Insurrections, a Copy of the said Address was transmitted to this Board by the Lords of the Treasury, with Directions to carry the same into Execution, and make a Report thereon to them, in order that it may be laid before Parliament: The Principal Officers of His Majesty's Works have accordingly received the Claims of a considerable Number of Sufferers, and have made a Progress in preparing their Report thereon, as it is possible there may remain still some Sufferers who, from being unacquainted that such Enquiry was making, or from other Causes, have not applied to this Office. Notice is hereby given, that such Persons may forthwith deliver in their Claims to the Secretary of the Board of Works, in order that they may be properly examined previous to this Report being delivered in to the Lords of the Treasury.

The Officers of His Majesty's Works will meet on Thursday the 12th and 19th Instant, for the above Purposes.

St. James's, October 7, 1780.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that John Jarvis, a Private Soldier in His Majesty's Forty-ninth Regiment of Foot, stands charged upon the Coroner's Inquest with the wilful Murder of Benjamin Jones, a Drummer in the said Regiment, by inhumanly cutting his Throat with a Knife, in the Parish of Alconbury with Weston, in the County of Huntingdon, on the 19th Day of August last; the Body of the said Benjamin Jones having been found the next Morning, with a bloody Knife lying near it, by the Side of the Great North Road between Alconbury and Bugden; and the Sum of Seven Pounds and upwards, which he had received, in Company with the said John Jarvis, on Account of his Father, a Serjeant in the said Regiment, for Subsistence, being missing:

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the said John Jarvis, and his Accomplices (if any) in the said Murder, is hereby pleased to promise His most Gracious Pardon to any one of them, (except the Person or Persons who actually committed the said Murder) who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof. And His Majesty is hereby farther pleased to promise a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS to any Person, (except as before excepted) who shall apprehend, or cause to be apprehended, the said John Jarvis, or either of his Accomplices, so that he, she, or they, may be convicted of the Crime abovementioned, to be paid upon such Conviction, by the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury.

HILLSBOROUGH.

And, as a farther Encouragement, His Majesty's Justices assembled at the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace at Huntingdon, do hereby promise the additional Reward of TWENTY POUNDS, to any Person, (except as before excepted) who shall apprehend, or cause to be apprehended, the said Murderer, or either of his Accomplices, to be paid upon Conviction by the Treasurer of the said County of Huntingdon.

N. B. The said John Jarvis is about 24 Years of Age, 5 Feet 6 Inches high, of a swarthy Complexion, with black Hair, grey Eyes, having lost one or two Teeth from the Front of his upper Jaw. He wore a red Frock, faced with Green, without any Lace, lined with White, the Button-holes worked with green Twist, plain white Metal Buttons, no Waistcoat, a Pair of Buckskin Breeches, white Thread Stockings, white narrow-rimmed Shoe-buckles, and a round Hat. He gave out that he was born at Hull in Yorkshire, followed the Business of a Horse Jockey, and enlisted at Huntingdon Races in the Month of July last, about which Time he was acquainted with a Journeyman Blacksmith, who worked at Alconbury, and lately came out of the North with him, and who called him Brother.

St. James's, September 16, 1780.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that, on Wednesday last, the 13th Instant, an anonymous Threatening Letter was received, by the Penny Post, at the House of Mr. William Toulmin, Surgeon, at Hackney, of which the following is a Copy, viz.

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Person or Persons concerned in writing or sending the said Letter, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them, (except the Person who actually wrote the same,) who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they, may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

STORMONT.

And, as a farther Encouragement, the said Mr. William Toulmin doth hereby promise a Reward of TEN POUNDS to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as before excepted) to be paid by him upon the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders.

William Toulmin.

St. James's, September 23, 1780.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, That on Saturday the Twelfth Day of August last, between Twelve and One o'Clock in the Morning,
